The JBRMR, a scholarly and refereed journal, provides an authoritative source of information for scholars, academicians, and professionals in the fields of business and retail management and is publicised twice a year. The journal promotes the advancement, understanding, and practice of business & retail management. It is peer reviewed and is the main research platform of The Academy of Business & Retail Management (ABRM). Scholars across borders are encouraged in advancing the frontiers of management education, particularly in the area of retail trade. Contributions should therefore be of interest to scholars, practitioners and researchers in management in both developed and developing countries targeting a worldwide readership through both print and electronic medium.

Although broad in coverage, the following areas are indicative and nurture the interests of the Academy with a “retail” underpinning:

- Business ethics and legal issues, Business environment
- Business policies, strategies, and performance
- Business security and privacy issues, Consumer behaviour
- Emerging advances in business and its applications
- Innovation and product development
- International business issues, Management and retail marketing
- Marketing management and strategies, Relationship management
- Risk Management
- Retail Management and communication
- New venture start-up
- Retail buying, MIS and Retail Management
- Demographics
- Innovation in Retail Management
- Law and management

Frequency: Four times a year: January, April, July and October
Review process: Blind peer review
Indexing with: SCOPUS, Cabell Publishing, EBESCO Host, ProQuest, ROAD, Ulrichs Web and ranked by SCIMAG

Preference will be given to papers which are conceptually and analytically strong and have empirical relevance. All papers will be reviewed according to the Journal’s criterion.
